From the Editorial Board

The present issue of Culture and Values contains two groups of scholarly papers. The first one, bound by the leitmotif of Law-Culture-Values, constitutes the conceptual cornerstone of the periodical. The authors of the articles collected in the current volume shed different light on the topics in question, employing a number of theoretical and practical approaches. Readers will find succinct expository analysis of the above-mentioned key topics in the Introduction written by Monika Torczyńska, the issue's editor-in-chief. The second group of texts is a collection of assorted academic papers by scholars specialising in philosophy, history of philosophy and religious studies.

The editors of the quarterly Culture and Values express their gratitude to all those who have reviewed the texts published in this issue. We would like to inform you that a personal list of the reviewers will be published in the last (December) issue of the periodical; it will include all those who have reviewed texts in 2013.

The editorial board of Culture and Values invites contributions to thematic number of the quarterly: Contemporary Axiology and Ethics: Problems, Debates, Positions. It will examine the current theories of values. The deadline for submissions is 30 September to 2013. We plan to publish this issue in December 2013.

We invite all researchers who would like to deal with the problematic of our quarterly – both scholars and PhD students – to cooperate with us. We accept texts in Polish, English and German. The submission guidelines are available by clicking the appropriate bookmark on our website.

The forthcoming issue of "Culture and Values" will be dedicated to Russian philosophy and centred round the following topic: "Values, culture and history in Russian philosophy". The issue will be published in October 2013..
